Plots with Exclusive Right of Burial Memorials

The right to erect a memorial on a grave space or alterations to an existing memorial is only permitted to be carried out at the request of the owners of the Exclusive Right of Burial - all registered names are required to sign the permit application. A grave space must have an active owner.

The fees applicable are permit fees only - these do not include stonemasons' fees, memorial or inscription.

All memorial permits must be submitted via a stonemason and be installed by a BRAMM / NAMM qualified stonemason of your choice.
